POINTS OF INTEREST:

Student Health Clinic Spokane Community College opened a new student health clinic in the recently renovated Jenkins Wellness Center. The health clinic operates in conjunction with university partners and provides free health screening, mental health counseling and clinical opportunities for allied health students and is open to all Community Colleges of Spokane students.

Aerospace Spokane Community College has taken the lead in developing a consortium of 14 colleges, two aerospace technology centers and one center of excellence and submitted a $20 million DOL Trade Adjustment Act grant request to support the aerospace industry in Washington State. During the summer SCC provided an aerospace academy for high school students hoping to interest them in aerospace related career fields. Additionally, SCC has offered AS 9100 training to the aerospace industry through its Inland Northwest Aerospace Technology Center.

Service Learning/ AmeriCorps Students in Service In 2010-2011 243 SCC students participated in 3,560 hours of service learning which created 81 new partnerships. Through Service Learning, students have impacted their community by applying their knowledge and skills to real-life situations gaining hands-on experience and other workforce skills. Additionally, 75 students participated in the AmeriCorps Students in Service program and contributed 31,800 hours of service.
