

2016-17 ARC Year End Report

This was another successful year for the Admissions and Registration Council. We only had two meetings, but they were informative and well received. Our membership has been active serving on state committees, building relationships, and facilitating communication within our council and the system. The highlight of our year was the Bias and Systemic Barrier workshop presented by Dr. Caprice Hollins at our winter meeting. This was a four hour workshop and was very well received by our membership and created a framework for the WSSSC spring conference. In addition to these activities, we also created a meeting planning guide which details all of the host college responsibilities. This was done to create standards and expectations as well as to make hosting easier.

The following are lists of the topics addressed during our meetings and the system wide committees our execs and members have served on.
