COVID Relief Funding and BEdA Students

According to this article from Inside Higher Ed, "The Education Department under the Biden administration has not responded to repeated requests for comment about its position on letting undocumented and international students get help" from the funding Congress approved in December of 2020. We continue to monitor and will provide you with updates as soon as we have them.

Grant Reminders

Please remember that all BEdA Grants, Master, IELCE, Leadership Block, and CBO State, were released in OGMS last Thursday, February 4, 2021. If you don't have access, please check with your organizations OGMS Administrator. Remember that all grants will be due by the end of the day on Thursday March 18, 2021.

Here to Serve

As always, I am available anytime you need information, have a question, or would like to provide input on how we are doing. Please email me at wdurden@sbctc.edu. I look forward to hearing from you.
