

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING
Between the
COMMUNITY COLLEGES OF SPOKANE
And the
CCS ASSOCIATION FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

- Whereas, Article 26 defines the duration and term of the Master Contract between the parties, and
- Whereas, that article provides that the current Master Contract shall remain in full force and effect from its execution through June 30, 2018, and
- Whereas, the parties plan to engage in good faith bargaining for a successor contract and those discussions will not culminate prior to June 30, 2018, and the parties have agreed that the current contract term should be extended through either June 30, 2019, or until the successor contract is ratified and approved, whichever occurs first, and
- Whereas, an extension of the current contract will be necessary to accommodate this decision.

Now, therefore, the parties agree as follows:

The 2015-2018 Master Contract between the Community Colleges of Spokane and the CCS Association for Higher Education will be extended beyond its current duration and term until such time as a successor contract is approved by the CCS Board of Trustees or until June 30, 2019, whichever occurs first.
